Latest Reports Are That Colombia Will Fight Panama Soon.

OTHER NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 30.—The following were today named by Governor Beckham to constitute the Kentucky commission to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition: A. Y. Ford, Louisville; Charles C. Spalding, Lebanon; W. T. Cox, Maysville; Sam P. Jones, Louisville; Clarence Dallam, Louisville; W. T. Ellis, Owensboro; W. H. Crump, Bowling Green; Charles E. Hoge, Frankfort; J. B. Bowler, Bardonia; A. G. Caruth, Louisville; Samuel Grabfeler, Louisville; Garrett J. Wall, Maysville; W. J. Worthington, Greenup; B. L. D. Guffy, Morgantown.

COLOMBIA MAY FIGHT.

Panama, Jan. 30.—It is now said that General Reyes having assured Colombia that the United States objected to the landing of troops only in the canal zone, Colombia will fight Panama. It is said that the sending of an expedition is the only thing to prevent the downfall of the government.

SPRAGUE DAMAGED.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 30.—It is understood here that the big towboat Sprague and the Cruiser are at the mouth of Green river badly damaged by the heavy ice. Six miles above here the Crescent City had part of her hull torn off by the ice.

SMALLPOX IN CHRISTIAN.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 30.—News has reached the city of a death from smallpox in the northern portion of Christian county, a mile from Crofton. David Glover died from the disease, which he caught from his son-in-law, Burney O'Neal, who returned from Colorado a month ago. The wives of both men also had it, but all recovered except Glover. Great difficulty is being experienced in getting some one to bury Glover, as the neighborhood is much excited.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 30.—An unusual suit has been filed here resulting from a charivari. T. F. Davis of Hickory Grove, was married Christmas and H. A. Albritton, of the same place, is alleged to have been among those who went around to charivari the couple. Mr. Davis evidently didn't like it, as he tossed out a brickbat which smashed Mr. Albritton on the head. The latter yesterday filed suit for $1500 damages.

NEW OFFICE.

TO HANDLE THE MAIL NEAR MAYFIELD.

A Washington dispatch says: "Representative James called on Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow to procure the establishment of a post-office near Mayfield, in Graves county. Mr. James filed a petition of the citizens."

TO GET PRISONER

Illinois Central Detectives Arrive for Wm. Lightfoot.

An Indictment Has Already Been Returned Against Him at Woodstock.

MOB VIOLENCE UNLIKELY

Mr. J. McCumsey, assistant chief detective of the I. C., and Mr. P. McHugh, special agent on the Memphis division of the I. C., arrived in the city this morning with a warrant, indictment and requisition for William Lightfoot, the negro brakeman accused of the murder of Roy M. Sloan, a white flagman, at Woodstock, Tenn., more than a week ago. As soon as Police Judge Sanders held Lightfoot over the two detectives went to Woodstock and through their efforts an immediate indictment was returned against the negro and this accomplished they applied for and secured a requisition for the negro and brought both the warrant and indictment this morning when they arrived.

Lightfoot is thought by many to be innocent of the charge, but in police court when he was striving to prove an alibi he failed to produce into court the engineer he claims to have ridden from Mayfield to Paducah with on Friday night, when he claims to have arrived here. Another important oversight in Lightfoot's behalf is his failure to prove how he got here from Fulton.

The I. C. detectives are confident of convicting their man and have secured abundance of evidence, even more than was introduced in court here. They will leave tonight with their man, and he will be given a speedy trial. There is some talk of mob violence but the officers will safely guard against this.

Attorney Dave Cross is confident of acquitting Lightfoot and will go down to defend him when the trial comes off.

Detectives McCumsey and McHugh appeared in police court this morning and presented their warrant and requisition and Police Judge Sanders ordered the prisoner turned over to them. Attorney D. A. Cross, for the defense, waived the right of the prisoner's appearance in court and Lightfoot was not brought from the jail to the city hall when the order was issued.

This morning the detectives secured their prisoner and left with him on a freight train for Fulton. At Fulton they caught the fast Chicago and New Orleans flyer and will land their man in jail at Memphis by 7 o'clock. They fear no mob violence and assured the local officers that Lightfoot would be well cared for on the trip.

Attorney D. A. Cross stated this morning that Lightfoot's trial had been set for the first of March. An indictment has also been returned against William White who was first arrested here supposed to be implicated, it is reported.

MAYFIELD COMPANY SOLD.

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 30.—The Mayfield Medicine Manufacturing company, located at St. Louis, has been sold to James F. Ballard, proprietor of the Snow White Liniment. Dr. J. J. McGee, of Mayfield, organized the company in 1898. Among the stockholders were: W. P. Lee, J. A. Wright, J. L. Sherrill, John L. Ligon, Boone Hudspeth, James Simpson, L. A. Cook, of Mayfield, and T. P. Cook, of Murray. It was capitalized at $200,000. It has been losing money.

AGAINST BRYANISM.

Middlesboro, Jan. 30.—The Middlesboro Times representative has interviewed one hundred leading Democrats and all but two are opposed to reaffirming the Kansas City platform. Seventy-two are in favor of the St. Louis convention nominating Gorman, 20 are in favor of Parker, two are for Olney and one for Hearst.

WEEK'S NEWS IN BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $624,081
Same week last year 516,637
Increase 107,444

Business at the banks has been very active this week and clearings show a big increase over the same week last year.

General trade with the wholesale houses suffered a reaction chargeable to the cold weather, but, everything considered, is very good. Business all over the Ohio Valley and the southwest is better than at the same time last year and as Paducah merchants touch these points mostly the prosperity of these localities is reflected in the business of this city.

Manufacturers report continuation of good bookings of orders with some of the factories turning them down every day as they are now up to capacity.

Retail trade is fair.

The Foreign Woolen Mills, of Owensboro, Ky., has decided to locate a branch house here about March 1 and it will be represented by Mr. H. L. D. Moorman, of Owensboro. The concern will make popular price suits, and also, have a pressing club to which there are already many signers. The first collection for the latter will be about April 1.

HEAVY FLOES

Continue to Race Down the Ohio River.

The Sprague and Other Boats Forced to Seek a Harbor By the Heavy Ice.

MANY BARGES ARE LOOSE

Heavy ice continues to pass Paducah in large floes and few boats venture out in it. The Dick Fowler continues to make her trips but there are a number of landings that often cannot be made, especially Brookport, where the ice cakes up against the I. C. incline and often prevents anything from landing.

Up about Evansville the ice is said to be the heaviest in the history of that part of the river, excepting the famous Wolf creek gorge of 1897.

Two coal towboats which left Paducah day before yesterday, are battling for an ice harbor at the mouth of Green river. The Sprague, the largest and costliest towboat inland and the Cruiser, another combine boat, have been hemmed in, and are suffering damage to wheels and upperwork. They have steel hulls.

The J. B. Finley and the Harry Brown, which also left Paducah Thursday, have succeeded in getting into the harbor.

The four boats were racing to Louisville to get a big coal fleet torn loose by ice. The heaviest part of the gorge is still to come. Three empty barges are reported coming between Paducah and Evansville, and seven between Louisville and Evansville, and three loaded with coal from Jeffersonville are supposed to be almost here.

WAS NOT HELD.

JOHN WYATT PASSED THE BILL IN GOOD FAITH.

John Wyatt, of near Hardin, Marshall county, Kentucky, who was arrested this week on suspicion of having unlawfully passed a counterfeit $20 bank note, was arraigned before Commissioner Armour Gardner this morning and dismissed of the charge.

Commissioner Gardner stated that he would give the man the benefit of the doubt and if the federal authorities wanted to take up the matter before the grand jury and prosecute it further next April, they could do so.

Wyatt is the farmer who passed the note on Mrs. Anna Rogers, a shanty boat woman, who afterwards passed it here, and Wyatt claimed it was given him by M. G. Warren who owed him $40 and had paid him $30, the bogus note being a part of the money paid.

Warren will be tried Thursday, the other two prisoners having waived examination and given bond.

MANY RAISES

County Supervisors Will Finish This Afternoon.

Increases in Assessment Aggregate $400,000, and Possibly More.

PROTESTS BEGIN MONDAY

The board of county supervisors will finish its work of going over the county tax assessment before adjourning this afternoon, and will Monday morning begin hearing complaints.

More notices of raises have been sent out this year than last, and the sheriff and deputies have been quite busy serving them. Those so notified are privileged to appear before the board on the day mentioned in their notice, and show cause why the raise in their assessment over the figures of the assessor should not stand. It is likely they will be on hand.

A member of the board stated today that while it was not known exactly how much the total raises amounted to, it was likely they will aggregate $400,000, and possibly go to half a million. It is believed that few reductions will be made.

The city supervisors have considerable work yet to do before completing their work.

RAILROAD NEWS

VERY LITTLE OF INTEREST IN RAILROAD CIRCLES.

Mr. H. C. McCourt assistant general manager of southern lines of the I. C., and Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the I. C., arrived in the city from Louisville yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. McCourt went on through to Fulton and the south and Mr. Egan remained here.

Mr. Clarence Knowles, superintendent of water supply of the Louisville division of the I. C., is in the city working on the shops water works system.

Train No. 103 was delayed at Cumberland river this morning fifty minutes by the breaking of a draw head in a freight train.

CAGE STICKS

THE ROLLERS HAVE APPARENTLY WORN OFF.

The big cage at the county jail has gotten out of repair and needs a new set of rollers.

Mr. Al Foreman, of the Foreman Machine Works, has been experimenting with the cage for two days trying to locate the defect and thinks it lies in the rollers which have worn flat.

Of late the deputy jailer has been unable to turn the cage around without the assistance of several men and yesterday it became so wedged that it was nearly impossible to turn it.

ABOUT THE HALL

Committee Meetings Held and Banks Agree to Carry Debts.

The Railroad Gate Question is Not Yet Settled—Cutting Scrape.

SOME MINOR MATTERS

The meeting of local bankers with the finance committee of the general council at the city hall yesterday afternoon to take up the matter of looking after the interest on the over-the-river bonds, resulted in the bankers agreeing to carry the indebtedness for the city until money can be raised in the new levy. Several years ago a Democratic council, by repudiating the over-the-river bonds against the sentiment of nearly everybody in Paducah, and despite the earnest protest of many of the best merchants and most public spirited citizens created the debt. The matter was taken into the courts by the innocent holders of the bonds, who had invested their money in them in good faith, and when finally the federal court held the bonds valid, interest amounting to about $18,000 had accumulated. Although this was some time ago, the interest has never yet been paid. It was originally $18,000, but is now about $16,000, bankers having taken up some of it. There is no money to pay the remainder, and one of the boards refused to concur in the action a short time ago of the other board to spend the $11,000 left of the appropriation of the streets to be paved by E. C. Terrell, for the debt. The banks now promise to look after the liability until the city can raise the money to pay it.

Thomas Woody and Frank Minor, colored, imbibed too large a quantity of mean whiskey last night and tried to convert the Cal Hinto saloon, on Court street, into a junk shop on short notice.

They had knives and while Woody was cutting on Sam Bogan's arm with his small size butcher knife, Minor was trying to follow example on the person of Hester Stovall, a colored wench who happened into the saloon when they started their "fun."

The negroes were arrested this morning and will be given a hearing before Police Judge D. L. Sanders Monday. Woody is charged with malicious cutting while Minor is charged with a breach of the peace, having succeeded in cutting the woman's shirt waist only.

The joint ordinance committee of the general council had a meeting last night to again take up the matter of requiring the railroad companies to put up automatic gates at certain crossings in the city. Mr. George C. Wallace, of the street railway company, was present and stated that his company would not consent to pay any of the costs of the gates, as such gates are to protect from railroad trains, not street cars. Superintendent Egan, of the Louisville division of the I. C., was present and spoke in regard to requiring the railroad to establish the gates, and finally it was decided to leave the matter open until next Tuesday.

Since the insurance men demanded an increase in the fire fighting facilities of the city, much talk has been caused among the residents of the North Side who are clamoring for a department. One favored place for establishing the department seems to be the brick building located at Tenth and Clay streets. This building is located in the heart of the North Side. It is two story and fully large enough to accommodate a department even larger than the Central department. The building can be converted into a station with comparative little expense and it is thought the city will locate it there, if at all.

The Charity club is doing much good throughout the city among the destitute, whose suffering is greatly

HAVE A GUSHER

Paducah People Own an Oil Well Near Lima, Ohio.

It Was "Shot" Yesterday and Produces Over 240 Barrels a Day.

SAID TO BE OF THE BEST

A number of Paducah men were today pleasantly surprised by a telegram stating that oil well belonging to the Oil News Co. No. 3, was shot yesterday and is considered the best yet shot in that locality, which means that its capacity will be over 240 barrels a day, the quantity spotted by a well on adjacent property belonging to Oil News Co. No. 2, shot not long ago.

The stock in this company, $65,000, is mostly owned by Paducah people. Among those who have stock in it are: W. M. James, E. P. Gilson, Vernon Blythe, Chamblin and Murray and others.

Mr. James, who is the real estate man, was at the scene two weeks ago and reports it one of the best localities imaginable for oil wells. The other well was shot about that time, and he found great activity in that section of the country.

A gusher that produces as much as 200 barrels a day is considered unusually good. Mr. James has pictures of the well of the company No. 2, and while the huge derrick over it burned when it was shot the damage was soon repaired, and it is now running regularly and is in first class shape.

The Paducah men interested in the other well were persuaded to take stock by a newspaper man who organized three companies and called them respectively Oil News No. 1, Oil News No. 2, and Oil News No. 3, the last named being the one controlled by Paducah people.

Paducah men also own stock in the No. 2 Co., but not a controlling interest. They are highly elated over the news they received today and are confident it is not exaggerated. All the stock is taken and there is none for sale, consequently there is no occasion for any exaggeration or misrepresentation.

TYLER RETIRES

WELL KNOWN FORMER STATE SENATOR TO PRACTICE NO MORE.

With last Thursday's speech in the defense of Ed Smith, ex-Senator R. T. Tyler retires from the practice of law. His great land and other interests are without doubt the chief cause of his retirement. The passing of Mr. Tyler from the bar of Fulton county and State of Kentucky leaves him very prominent before the people, who honor and respect him both as a christian gentleman and an able lawyer. He will give his time hereafter to his land and insurance business, and also to spend his days in enjoying a well earned fortune.—Hickman Dixie Star.

WILL CALL PASTOR

MEETING PROBABLY WILL BE HELD TOMORROW EVENING AT THE CHURCH.

Rev. E. L. Kuenzler, of South Webster, Ohio, will arrive this evening and tomorrow occupy the pulpit at the German Evangelical church both morning and evening, preaching in English in the forenoon and German at night.

He will be a candidate for the pastorate and it is probable the congregation will hold a meeting and choose a pastor after the meeting tomorrow night. Either Rev. Kuenzler or Rev. Bretz, the latter here last Sunday, will be chosen.

THEATRICAL WORLD.

Don't forget to call for your voting coupon for the box party contest now on at The Kentucky.

Ladies will be admitted free Monday night to witness "A Gambler's Wife," by the Howard-Dorset Company, if accompanied by a paid thirty cent ticket if purchased before five o'clock Monday afternoon.

The Howard-Dorset company in repertoire plays and vaudeville specialties will hold the stageland boards again at the Kentucky, all of next week, except Wednesday, which is reserved for Tim Murphy. The weather being such during the first part of the Howard-Dorset engagement, not permitting regular theatre patrons to attend has prompted Mr. English in having this capable company remain another week. The decided increase in business on the last part of the week free ticket upon the opening night of their first appearance. But as the company will remain all of next week, which will not necessitate additional railroad fares, billing, etc., he will extend the usual ladies free ticket upon the opening night.

Tim Murphy will present "The Man From Missouri" at the Kentucky Wednesday, Feb. 3d. "The Man From Missouri" is full of bright touches. George V. Hobart and Edward E. Rose have constructed in it a play that gives ample opportunity to Mr. Murphy to display his peculiar powers of vigorous and healthful humor, and at the same time it is vivified by sufficient action, color and contrast to make it piquant and entertaining.

"The Man From Missouri" is a little wild when he first breaks into will be presented.

The comedy opera "The Chaperons" that enjoyed a run of two months at the New York theater will be on view in Paducah next month with nearly all the old favorites in the cast. No musical comedy of last season was more generally popular and local theatergoers will doubtless appreciate this genuinely meritorious production which comes to this city for the first time. Few plays in its class have the vitality which "The Chaperons" possesses, the reason for which is to be found in the fact that the production has not been allowed to deteriorate in any way.

There will be no dull moments at the Kentucky as soon as those two clever German dialect comedians, Harris and Sidman, appear in the latest edition of Weber & Fields' "Pousse Cafe." They come heralded as the most famous of word distorters, and as that sort of entertainment seems to be on the highest wave of popularity at present they should be greeted by an auditorium filled to overflowing.

The coming of Mr. N. C. Goodwin the latter part of February, in a revival of his greatest success, "A Gilded Fool," will no doubt be received with acclamation by the many votaries of the theater in this city, particularly by those who have seen Mr. Goodwin in the entire gamut of his creations. His friends and well wishers always maintaining that as Chancey Short, in this play, he is at his best.

The contest on for the theater box party, which will be bestowed by the Howard-Dorset company upon the most popular young lady in the city, has created considerable interest, and if the present enthusiasm continues up to Tuesday night when the final votes will be counted, and announced from the stage, there will be some ardent contestants on hand.

TEACHERS MET

INTERESTING PROGRAM RENDERED—HEATING THE SCHOOLS.

This morning the teachers in the Paducah public schools, held their monthly literary meeting at the High school. The attendance was good and the programme very interesting and successfully rendered.

Super. Leib is looking after the heating facilities of the buildings and has issued new instructions to the janitors whose duty it is to see to the firing of the buildings. The janitors, it seems, have not been properly instructed in the art of firing and know practically little about handling the furnaces.

PRICES UP.

New York, Jan. 30.—Vegetarians here are having rather an expensive season. All kinds of green vegetables are high and scarce, owing to the long continued cold, and people in ordinary circumstances have been compelled to fall back on canned goods. Spinach costs about as much as mushrooms do ordinarily. Lettuce is 15 cents a head, while celery, peas, beans and strawberries, all of which generally are plentiful in the markets, are now almost unobtainable.

Eggs of the ordinary quality, not strictly fresh, are bringing 50 and 60 cents a dozen. Dealers say no fresh supplies whatever are coming in.

PLEASANT AND MOST EFFECTIVE.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes December 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasant remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO FIGHT DUEL.

Madrid, Jan. 30.—As an outcome of a heated altercation in the chamber of deputies concerning the appointment of Mgr. Nozales, the archbishop of Valencia, Minister of War Linares and Deputy Soriano are to fight a duel. They have appointed seconds.

Mr. Tim Murphy and Miss Sherrod in "A Man From Missouri," at The Kentucky Wednesday Night Only.

over the first, is only proof that had the weather been at all inviting, packed houses would have prevailed at the commencement of their engagement, and demonstrates the fact that the Howard-Dorset company is deserving of liberal patronage. It may be said with perfect candor that for a company playing week stands, at popular prices, and presenting such high class royalty pieces, as does this company, it is not a mythical problem that they are popular wherever they play, and are pronounced by critics as about the best repertoire organization on the road today. One of the strong bills that will be offered during their stay at the Kentucky next week is, viz: "Held by the Enemy," a five act military drama. There is a thread of love making running through this piece that relieves the heavy soldiery of the play. Many of our theatergoers are familiar with the author, William T. Gillette's plays "Sherlock Holmes," "Secret Service" and other famous plays were from the pen of this clever playwright. "An Innocent Sinner" by Lawrence Marston will be one of the bills. On Monday night of this week the ladies' free ticket will be tendered, as is usual with most repertoire companies. Owing to the expensive company that Mr. Howard has this season, he could not well afford to offer the usual ladies'

Washington society by appearing over the garden wall. He is full of slang and the unconventional strength of expression of the West. But when Mr. Man is put into a dress suit in the second act, his extremeness abates a little of its strenuousness, and the rough diamond shows a little polish. Jim Broncho finds that he must throw aside his pistols and work with subtler weapons against the villain, a smooth, tall, serpentine-looking Mexican, who is seeking to compromise the name of a good woman, Broncho, with the deadly coolness of a Western hero, outwits the villain at his own game in a fascinating fashion. A happy touch is his love-making. In this Mr. Murphy is admirably assisted by the arch Dorothy Sherrod, who has a little way about her that is as pleasant as a clover field in spring.

Perhaps the largest crowd of the week witnessed "The Man From Mexico" presented by the Howard-Dorset company at the Kentucky last night. It is one of the cleverest pieces put on by this company, and was thoroughly enjoyed. Both Mr. Howard and Miss Dorset had roles which they handled with the skill of the artists they are, and the audience was delighted with the performance. The company will be here next week, with the exception of Wednesday night, when Tim Murphy will be here. This afternoon there is a large matinee crowd and tonight "Held by the Enemy," one of Wm. Gillette's plays Saved From The Knife.

No. 55 Oglethorpe Avenue,
ATLANTA, GA., March 7, 1903.

I am very grateful indeed for the good which I received from the use of Wine of Cardui and am pleased to give you my experience. Shortly after I was married I began to feel miserable, my health and strength failing day by day in connection with headaches, backaches and a general worn-out feeling. On consulting a doctor he said that I had womb trouble and ulceration and must undergo an operation. I felt so weak that I was sure that I would not live to go through it and decided to try Wine of Cardui which I had seen advertised so much and see what that would do for me before I underwent an operation. I am pleased to state that I felt better much later in two weeks and by using Wine of Cardui for two months my health was restored and I now feel like a new woman and look like one, so my friends say. That is what Wine of Cardui has done for me.

Marie Meder
PAST WORTHY VICE-TEMPLE, INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS.

WINE of CARDUI

Women who know that operations are dangerous, and that too frequently one operation leads to another, rebel against the operating table. Many surgeons are too ready to advise an operation. Mrs. Meder's case and the experience of thousands of other women prove that such extreme measures are usually unnecessary when Wine of Cardui can be obtained.

Wine of Cardui is the best medicine known for the cure of the diseases of women. It strengthens the womanly organs and assists nature to restore healthy functions. It relieves all menstrual disorders and cures bearing down pains and ovarian troubles. It corrects barrenness, relieves the worst pains at childbirth, and is beneficial for women of all ages and conditions. It is not only an emergency medicine in the time of pain and sickness, but it is a sure preventative, an occasional dose of which tones up the general health.

If you are suffering, remember the good that Mrs. Meder got out of this medicine and give it a trial. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

The Week In Society.

THERE IS PANSIES.

Take these memories sweet scented,
Gathered while the morning dew
Drenched the silver of the cobwebs, Heart's ease, picked at dawn for you.

Yellow for the days of sunshine,
White for days of peace and rest,
Purple ones for feasts and high—days,
Wine red for the days love blest.

For myself, I keep the black ones,
Memories of grief and pain,
Keep them hidden, lest their shadow Fall across your heart again.

—Mildred Howells in Atlantic.

SO ENDETH JANUARY.

While the week has not been so gay as was forecasted, several entertainments having been called in by illness and the death of Bishop T. U. Dudley, well loved here, there have yet been some charming functions and most pleasant entertaining of the more informal sort. Enough to keep society occupied without feeling unduly rushed.

This week closes the January social calendar, it has not been so full, perhaps, as the months before Christmas for the season has been both early and brilliant. The February page is now open for marking, with only two weeks before Lent begins. Doubtless there will be much crowded in this limited play-time. A cotillion and Mrs. Keller's card party are among the notable events for the coming week. Other things falling the Kentucky is open every night, with Tim Murphy for an especial feature on Wednesday evening.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

One of the most elaborate functions of the winter was the card party on Monday afternoon at the Palmer house given by Mrs. Jacob Wallerstein and Mrs. Sol Dreyfus in honor of visitors in the city. The decorations were a charming combination of pink and white, and a profusion of flowers were in evidence. The luncheon table was a symphony in pink and white, the center piece being an exquisite arrangement of roses, carnations and maiden hair ferns, with pink candelabra, and decorated potted plants the entire length of the table. An orchestra screened by evergreens played during the afternoon.

The first prize, a lovely vase, was won by Mrs. Belle Weil and presented to Mrs. Samuel Cohen of Cairo. Mrs.
Joseph Jacobs of Ames, Iowa, captured the guest prize, a pretty silver tray.
The lone hand prize, a silver hat brush, was won by Mrs. Helen Hecht and the consolation prize, a silver hat pin, went to Mrs. Moses Bloom.

The elaborate course-luncheon was an artistic emphasis of the color scheme, and each guest was presented with a rose and carnation in these colors on leaving the dining room.

The guest list included: Mrs. Samuel Cohen, of Cairo; Mrs. Joseph Jacobs, of Ames, Iowa; Mrs. Sarah Weil, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Aaron Williams, of Chicago; Mrs. Max B. Nahn, of Bowling Green; Mrs. Bertha Harris, of St. Louis; Mrs. Jacob Hecht, of St. Louis; Mesdames Helen Hecht, Will Levy, L. S. DuBois, J. M. Wor-ten, Samuel Fels, Moses Bloom, Hen-

Mrs. Moses Bloom's card party on Tuesday afternoon was a most delightful occasion and a charming compliment to visitors in the city. The handsome home on Jefferson street was a show of pink carnations and looked most attractive.

The first prize, a silver cream and sugar set of antique design, was won by Miss Mary K. Sowell. Mrs. Herman Wallerstein captured the second prize, a pretty light green card case, mounted in gold. The guest prize, a dainty white gauze chataleine fan, was won by Mrs. Nora Smith of Dresden, Tenn. Mrs. A. B. Sowell carried off the booby prize, a tiny silver sligree chair with the clever invitation to "Go way back and sit down."

The elaborate luncheon was the pre-ty conceit of a St. Louis caterer and emphasized the pink carnation idea throughout the various courses. The peas were served in pink carnation baskets. The ices and mints were pink carnations and the cakes were iced in the same design. The effect was most artistic. The guests were: Mrs. Sarah Weil, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. A.
W. Williams, of Chicago; Mrs. Max
B. Nahn, of Bowling Green; Mrs.
Nora Smith, of Dresden, Tenn.; Mesdames L. W. Boswell, A. R. Meyers, fuss, Polly Ferriman, Elizabeth Sinnott, Helen Decker, Emily Morrow, Irene Schwab, Ruth Weil.

Mrs. Clarence M. Martin entertained with a delightful card party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Mamie Tate Chapman, of Morganfield, Ky. The reception hall, parlor and dining room were attractively decorated in pink, white and green, carnations and a profusion of smilax emphasizing these colors.

There were seven tables at cards.
The first prize, a burnt wood stein, was won by Mrs. Wynne Tully. Miss Geraldine Sanders captured the lone hand prize, a hand painted tray, and the guest prize a gold hat pin was awarded to Miss Carrie Weil of Cleveland, Ohio.

The color scheme of pink, white and green was elaborated in the pretty three-course luncheon served after the game. Those invited to Mrs. Martin's were: Mesdames E. L. Atkins, W. A. Berry, Robert Reeves, Smith,
D. L. Sanders, Ben Weille, G. H.
Powell, C. B. Hatfield, Lawrence Gleaves, S. H. Winstead, Wynne Tullips, J. C. Utterback, James Clements, King Brooks, J. B. Martin, Claude

Baker, W. A. Martin, H. P. Sights, Miss Carrie Weil, of Cleveland, Ohio;
Miss Mary Waller, of Morganfield; Misses Emma Niehaus, Faith Lang-staff, Leila Goodwin, Susie Thompson, Elizabeth Martin, Letha Poryear, Ruth Weil, Geraldine Sanders, Henrietta Koger, Helen Decker, Myrtle Decker, Lillian Rudy, Sarah Sanders, Evelyn Walker, Margaret Park, Clara Park.

Dr. and Mrs. David G. Murrell gave a pretty luncheon on Wednesday at their home on Broadway in honor of their niece, Miss Marion Upton, of New Orleans, a popular favorite in Paducah. The two tables were effectively decorated in red carnations and were presided over by Miss Upton and Dr. Murrell. The luncheon was attractively served in five courses. The guests were: Mrs. Hughes McKnight, Mrs. Rabb Noble, Misses Martha Davis, Carline Sowell, Helen Decker, Hallie Hissey, Lillian Rudy, Henrietta Koger, Rubie Corbett, Hattie Terrell, Minnie Terrell, Ethel Morrow, Angie Thomas Kathleen Whitefield.

Mrs. Herman Friedman was the hostess of the Wednesday Afternoon club this week at her home on Jefferson street, entertaining the club members and some outside guests most pleasantly. Miss Mamie Dryfuss won the first club prize, and Mrs. Will Levy, the second. The lone hand prize was won by Miss Irene Schwab and presented to Mrs. Sarah Weil, of Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Susie Tandy of Hopkinsville, captured the visitor's prize. A delightful five course luncheon was served after the game.

Mrs. Frank Gardner entertained the Industrial club most pleasantly on Friday afternoon at her home on South Tenth street. Pit was played and the club prize was won by Miss Lula Kirchoff. Mrs. E. W. Bockmon secured the visitor's prize and Mrs. George Katterjohn the booby prize. A delicious luncheon was served after the game. Besides the club members there were present: Mesdames James Gardner, E. W. Bockmon, Pat Lally, F. Rieglesberger, F. G. Mertz, Miss Maidie Gardner.

Misses Margaret Park and Clara Park gave a charmingly informal little evening on Wednesday at their home on West Jefferson boulevard in honor of Miss Waller, of Morganfield, Ky. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs.
Will Gilbert, Miss Waller, of Morganfield; Misses Myra DuBois, Mabel Weeks, Lula Reed, Messrs. Thomas Rankin, Philo Alcott, Dr. Allen Ashcraft, Dr. I. B. Howell, Dr. Vernon Blythe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Joynes entertained a number of guests most pleasantly at their home on South Fourth street on Tuesday evening in honor of their son, Mr. Earl Joynes. A "Peanut Walk" was the feature of the evening. Mrs. Lawrence Raser won the first prize for ladies and Miss Mabel Hughes, the booby prize. Mr. Tom Wallington and Mr. Ed Leonard captured the gentleman's prizes.

The Fourth street club was given a box party on Monday evening at the opening performance of the Howard-Dorset Stock company at The Kentucky. Mr. Neal Luftenberg and Mr.
Vernon Augustus were the hosts of the occasion.

The Charity club will meet on Monday morning at 10:30 with Miss Faith Langstaff on Kentucky avenue. An important meeting and all members are urged to be present.

The Whist club did not meet this week and probably will have no meeting next week, there being other things to engage the club's attention just now.

The Omega Tribe of Red Men held a social session and banquet at the Wigwam on North Fourth street last evening that was a most enjoyable occasion.

Music—"The Apollo."

AMONG CLUBS.

The Delphic club met Tuesday morning with Mrs. Annie H. Morrow. Mrs.
Louis M. Rieke gave a delightfully interesting account of the "Noted works of art in the Academy Belle Artes" of Florence. Mrs. Muscoe Burnett told the story of "The Ring and the Book," handling Browning's big masterpiece with decided cleverness and ease. The next meeting will be a continuation of the study of Florence, especially as revealed by the life and works of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning there.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mrs. Samuel Cohen, of Cairo, is the guest of Mrs. Sol Dreyfus of Jefferson street.

Mrs. M. B. Nash left today to visit her daughter, Mrs. John J. Saunders in Louisville.

Miss Marjorie Crumbaugh is visiting in Columbus, Miss., the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lee Crumbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brown Sanders expect to leave Biloxicon for San Antonio, Tex., before going on to New Mexico.

Mrs. W. Baxter Pace of Louisville, is expected in a few days to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Burnett of the West End.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meequut left this week for a tour of the Pacific coast. They will visit St. Paul, Seattle and San Francisco while away and expect to be absent some months.

Mrs. Nora Gardner Smith of Dresden, Tenn., is the guest of her cousin Mrs. Thomas A. Baker, of North Ninth street. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Oscar Turner of Louisville, well known here, and is very charming socially.

Miss Mamie Tate Chapman, of Morganfield, Ky., who has been the pleasant guest of Mrs. Clarence M. Martin, left on Thursday for Hot Springs, Ark. She will return by Paducah and make a visit. Miss Chapman made many friends while here who will welcome her return.

Miss Katherine Herndon, formerly a brilliant teacher in the Paducah public schools, who is now chaperoning a party of girls studying abroad, will leave Paris in February for Italy and remain there some time, spending Easter in Rome. Miss Herndon and her party have had apartments in Paris since August, and recently gave a very charming entertainment to the friends they had made there, which include some of the nobility.

WILL NOT APPEAL

ED SMITH TO SERVE THE TWO YEARS.

Ed Smith, of Fulton, convicted for killing Captain Hardiman Robinson, who died in the railroad hospital here, and sentenced to two years, has decided to accept his sentence and not appeal his case. He will be taken to Eddyville Monday by Sheriff Carpenter.
Judge Bagg passed sentence upon him before court adjourned at Hickman.

IMPERFECT DIGESTION.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle.

There is no greater public benefit than a strictly reliable store where merchandise can always be purchased at a fair and moderate price.

Garment Values That Will Appeal

The strong list of low priced special items in present day garment needs which we place before the public this week will appeal with uncommon force to the woman behind the pocket book. Each one represents a striking reduction from earlier figures and, because of the fact that lots are now small and spring goods will soon take their place, you should take immediate advantage of these real economy chances by buying at once.

SKIRTS

There are important savings in every one of these skirt items. They represent the finest makes and the best values it was possible to obtain.

Ladies' walking skirts in gray and black that were $5 are now sold at $3.75.

Ladies' walking skirts in gray that were sold at $6 are now $4.75.

Ladies' walking skirts that were sold at $10 are now $7.50.

Ladies' black velvet skirt that was $20 now $6.95.

Ladies' black silk skirt that was $15 now $7.95.

Ladies' black Peau de Soie skirt that was $18 is now $9.95.

WAISTS

All the waists have had their price figures sharply cut for this week's sale.
It is the supreme chance of the winter if you need a waist as these are the final figures.

Ladies' white Oxford waists trimmed with large pearl buttons that were cheap at 75c reduced to 49c.

Ladies' heavy white Madras waists that were $1.00 reduced to 69c.

Ladies' white Pique waists with braided front that were $1.50 reduced to 99c.

COATS

Coat price reduction that should deeply interest every woman who lives in walking or riding distance of this store. You might search the entire state and not find stronger values that show more of actual economy of price.

Ladies' brown Zibeline cloak size, 40, that was $20, now reduced to $7.50.

Ladies' tan Kirsey cloaks that were splendid values at $16.50 are now reduced to $7.50.

Children's black silk cloaks that were $5, reduced to $2.50.

Children's black silk cloaks that
were $10, reduced to $4.

Children's black velvet cloaks that were $8, reduced to $3.50.

All $5 and $6 children's woolen cloaks reduced to $3.

SUITS

Read these suit prices carefully.
They tell a potent story of our earnest desire to close out every remaining suit at once without further delay.

Four Ladies' suits from season of 1902, reduced to $5.00 each.

Three Ladies' suits from season of 1902, that were $20, reduced to $5.

Ladies' suits, this season styles that were $20 and $25, reduced to $2.95.

THE WEATHER.

Rain tonight with rising tempera-

GET THE FACTS.

While the question of requiring the railroads to establish gates at certain crossings inside the city limits is under discussion, it might in justice to the railroads be well to fully and fairly investigate the question. These gates cannot be installed for nothing, but will cost several hundred dollars each. The first question to decide is:
Will such gates give the people any more protection than they have now?
The next is: Is there any cheaper or more satisfactory way to the railroad company, that the same amount of protection could be secured? Railroad men claim that the gates do not protect any better than a flagman. Contrary to general belief, the gates do not raise and lower themselves at the approach of danger, but are worked by a man. If they raised or lowered themselves, they would often come down after a wagon had gotten between them, or might suddenly lower on some person just as he passed under them. At any rate railroad men claim that a flagman at the crossings is of as much, if not more benefit, to the public than the gates. While flagmen get negligent and careless, so might be the man who works the gate.
With the gates, it is alleged, people become incontinent, and are likely not to exercise the same discretion they would with a flagman warning them off.

Another means of warning the public of approaching trains is the "bell" system. When trains get within a certain distance of a street intersection in many cities, there is a large bell on the corner that begins to ring loudly, indicating that a train is coming.

One member of the local committee appointed to investigate the gate question said this morning that before he voted to require the railroads to put up gates here at present, he would have to be given better reasons than yet offered for their adoption. He said that from his talk with experienced railroad men he was convinced that either bells or flagmen were preferable to gates, because the successful working of the latter depends on the man left to operate it, and if he doesn't operate it, it will not operate, making it no better than the flagging system.

The Sun is not opposed to the proposed gates, but simply suggests that a fair and impartial investigation be made and the opinion of men who thoroughly understand such things be obtained before the railroads, which are entitled to just as much consideration at the hands of the legislative boards as anyone or anything else, are put to any unnecessary expense.

Arkansas Democrats are making it lively for their fighting governor, Jeff Davis, and one of the leading Little Rock Democratic clubs has issued a proclamation bearing, among other things, the following complimentary reference to him: "He has brought shame and discredit upon the state by slandering and abuse of the legislature, the other executive officers and the judges, and he has lowered the level of politics beyond all known precedents. He has sought success by arousing prejudice and arraying one class against another." This is enough to make "Gov. Jeff" go gunning for somebody.

Our valued contemporary, the Mayfield Messenger, is probably looking for a new proof reader by this time.
That important personage allowed the paper to say Thursday that the Democrats when they learn more about Mr.
Hearst, will be ready to "instruct their delights" to the state convention—instead of "instruct their delegates"— and a little further down that some newspapers are "waisting" their space.

When the Kentucky legislature quits business the state treasury, the fulness of which the Democrats were wont to boast before the election, will look like bad money. If the legislators ever quit bringing in bills appropriating money for this and that, it will be because there is no more money to appropriate. They can be counted on to keep busy as long as the money holds out.

The officeholders' aid society of Livingston county is getting up its fences early. The candidates are already coming out in flowery newspaper announcements for offices to be filled two years hence. It would save time, trouble and money for Kentucky Democrats to hold two elections at once.

Although the defeat in the state senate yesterday of the resolution instructing Kentucky senators to vote for the Panama treaty is a hard blow for the Panama canal, we trust the administration at Washington can manage to make other arrangements to build the canal.

Panama promises to become a nation fertile in expedients. It has decided to execute murderers because there is no penitentiary in which to confine them for life. Murderers will consequently do well to wait awhile, until a suitable place can be prepared for them.

Tobacco raisers continue to agitate over the "trust evil." The best way for them to make tobacco raising a paying business at present is to quit raising it.

No better chance has been offered for one or two parties combined to make a most desirable real estate investment on very easy terms. We offer two new two story 7 room houses in Worton's South Side addition near the I. C. railroad shops for $2400 for the two, each house on a 40 ft. lot, on the very easy terms of $300 cash and the balance $25 per month. The tenants pay $20 per month rent so that all the purchaser or purchasers have to raise is $5 per month and interest at 6 per cent. This is not only a desirable bargain for two home seekers but it is good for investors as well.
No option can be given to any one but the first parties ready to close up get the bargain.

AMERICA'S GREATEST SPECIALIST.

himself used in his own extensive private practice with the most startling success. Though he years have passed its equal has never been found and with it thousands of weak men have brought about the cures they so much longed for. The doctor willingly sends the formula entirely free to any man who writes him for it, and they will find it a gift of lasting value. It is good for sexual weakness, lost manhood, nervousness, weak back, emissions, varicocele, lack of force, prostatic trouble, night sweats, and good nature, forces active blood to the muscular tissue, tones the nervous system and arouses bodily confidence. It makes the man of as good as at 35, and the young man again eager for society and fit for marriage and parenthood. Satisfactory results are produced in a day's use, and a perfect cure in a few weeks, regardless of age, or the cause of your condition.

If you need such a remedy send your name and address today to the Dr. Knapp Med. Co., 1610 Hull Bld., Detroit, Mich., and in an unmarked envelope the doctor will at once send you the receipt, as promised, explaining in detail what ingredients to use and how to compound them so that any weak man can cure himself in his own home without being under obligations to anyone. It costs you nothing and the sooner you write the sooner you will be cured.

Few Cases on the Docket in Judge Sanders' Court.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Wm. Reed adjourned court today at noon until Monday and little was done.

The case of Mary E. Clark, admx. of S. H. Clark, against the American Benevolent association, resulted in a verdict for $248 and interest, the full amount asked for. The husband of the deceased was insured in this sick benefit association and was ill for a period sufficiently long to accumulate that amount. Attorneys Bagby and Martin appeared for Mrs. Clark.

The case of Walters against the C.
St. L. and N. O. Railroad company was continued by agreement.

The case of Davis, administrator, against Hilton, administrator, was dismissed without prejudice.

In the case of the St. Louis Dressed Beef Provision Co. against Sol T.
Ham, a judgment for the property attached, in favor of the plaintiff, was returned.

A verdict for the defendant was filed in the suit of John G. Miller, administrator, of Johnnie Smith, against the
I. C. for damages. The young lady was killed at Dawson.

POLICE COURT.

Police Judge Sanders had another short docket this morning.

Dee Pettigron and Tom Lyons, colored, were arraigned for being drunk and disorderly and the former fined $10 and costs, and the latter dismissed.

On motion of the prosecuting attorney Will Vinegar, colored, was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Dora Hadleston, colored, who owed a balance on a judgment, was brought into court, and on motion of the prosecuting attorney and the remainder of the judgment set aside.

HAPPY AND HEALTHY.

A Beautiful Canadian Girl Saved From Catarrh of the Lungs by Pe-ru-na.

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 434 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently.
"I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored and have enjoyed perfect health since."

"I now have the greatest faith in Peruna."

F. E. KENAH.

WOMEN should beware of contracting catarrh. The cold wind and rain, slush and mud of winter are especially conducive to catarrhal derangements. Few women escape.

Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. It forti-fies the system against colds and catarrh.

The following letter gives one young woman's experience with Peruna:

Miss Rose Gerbing is a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., and she writes the following:

"Recently I took a long drive in the country, and being thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did, for it brought speedy relief.

It only took about two bottles, and I considered this money well spent.

"You have a firm friend in me, and I not only advise its use to my friends, but have purchased several bottles to give to those without the means to buy, and have noticed without exception that it has brought about a speedy cure where-ever it has been used."—Miss Rose Gerbing.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address: Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

ATE OUT

BOY CONDEMNED TO DIE ATE HIS WAY TO HEALTH.

The foster mother's story of how powerful food built up her boy is intensely interesting.

"I have an adopted son who was 12 years of age at the time I first began to use Grape Nuts. About that time three of the best physicians in Evansville told me he would die of consumption before he was 14.

"He was also afflicted with gastritis and that is what first called my attention to this famous food three years ago, for I knew Grape Nuts was good for all stomach troubles.

"Since that time he has eaten nothing but Grape Nuts for breakfast and supper and instead of being dead with consumption he now weighs 140 pounds, stands 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches high, and has big hard and well developed muscles. Is in the second year of the high school and claims that where study used to be difficult it is now clear as day and without any great effort on his part. The boy himself attributes his splendid health and active brain to his steady, faithful use of Grape Nuts food.

"We also have a grandfather living with us who is 80 years of age and although confined to his room by old age has gained considerably in flesh. His nerves that were a perfect wreck are now steady and right since he began to use Grape Nuts food regularly. The nervous twitchings of hands and feet have entirely disappeared and when nothing else will remain on his stomach Grape Nuts sets perfectly easy and after eating it at supper which he takes at 6 o'clock he does not feel the slightest weakness and rests well until his breakfast at 7 the next morning." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Grape Nuts Food that always digests and gives out the needed nutriment works wonders even in extreme cases like the above. There's a reason.

Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

STORK TIME
To most women is a term of anxiety, serious thought and sweet anticipation. With the cessation of pain necessary to childbirth, there comes calm nerves, sleep and recuperation.
MOTHER'S FRIEND
does diminish the pain accompanying maternity. With its aid mothers can and do bring healthy, sweet dispositioned and ideal babies into the world. Morning sickness, sore breasts and excruciating pains caused by the gradually expanding organs, are relieved by this penetrating and relaxing liniment. Among the manifold aids to childbirth Mother's Friend has grown in popularity and gained a prestige among rich women as well as poor; it is found and welcomed in the mansion as well as in the cabin. By lessening the mother's agony of mind and diminishing pain a beautiful influence is wrought upon the child, and instead of peevish, ill-tempered and sickly forms you have healthy, laughing humanity, remaining a blessing ever to you and its country. All druggists sell Mother's Friend at $1.00. Write for our free Book "Mother's Friend." THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

PADUCAH HEATING COMPANY.

Articles of incorporation of the Paducah heating company were filed today in county court.

The capital stock is fixed at $100,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $100 each. The following are the stockholders and the number of shares each holds: J. W. Kotler, 500; W. W. Powell, 250; J. H. Fenwick, 250.

The election of officers will be held on the first Tuesday in February which will be next Tuesday the second. The corporation was organized to furnish steam heat to private and public places in the city and to deal in a heating business in every form.

Who?
most popular young lady (unmarried) in Paducah?

To settle this problem Managers English and Howard offer a box party to the performance of

Mr. Tim Murphy
Wednesday night
February 3

who will present for the first time his latest and most successful play,

"The Man from Missouri"

Just who is to receive the box will be decided by the patrons of THE KENTUCKY

By vote

Owing to the popularity of the Howard-Dorset company special arrangements have been made to extend their engagements throughout the entire week of February 1, with the exception of Wednesday when Mr. Tim Murphy and his company will appear. Every purchaser of a 30c seat for any performance of the Howard-Dorset company on Friday, January 29, Saturday January 30, Monday February 1 and Tuesday, February 2 will receive therewith a coupon, blank, on which can be written the name of any young lady resident of Paducah. So

Vote for the one you like best

By writing her name on the ballot and deposit in the ballot box placed in the lobby of the Kentucky during each performance.

A committee of three persons will be selected from the audience at each performance to count the votes cast, and the official result, announced from the stage prior to the last act, published daily in the Morning Register and Evening Sun. The lady receiving the largest total vote will be named Tuesday night, and presented with the box tickets good for herself and five friends. Should the person elected not be in the audience the box will go to the next highest contestant present.

THE RESULT OF LAST NIGHT'S VOTE WILL BE FOUND IN ANOTHER COLUMN OF THIS PAPER.

SKATING AT PARK GOOD.

Last night there were fully 100 people from the city at the La Belle Park lake skating, and they enjoyed the sport very much. Today the ice has been thoroughly cleaned, and is thick enough to last several days, even with a good thaw. Piles of dry wood have been provided to furnish fire and tonight and tomorrow the indications are for a large crowd out.

Nothing is spared for the convenience of the public, which is always welcome.

A DAY'S DEATHS

Mrs. J. J. Allen Died This Afternoon at the City Hospital.

Death of Miss Akers and Also Another Former Resident, in Another Place.

Mrs. J. J. Allen, aged 70, died shortly after noon today at the city hospital from old age and an injury she received about January 1 by falling and breaking her hip, at the home of a relative on South Ninth street. Mrs. Allen was born in Smith county, Tenn., and was a sister of the late Captain Tom Birchett, at one time city marshal, and later keeper of the city hospital, which place his widow now holds.

Had she lived until June she would have been 71 years old. She leaves two sisters in Nashville and a niece, Mrs. Campbell, of the city, whom she reared as her adopted daughter, but no children of her own.

Miss Sallie Akers, of the city, who lately moved to Hampton, Ky., for her health, died yesterday. She lived here for several years and during the past several weeks had been seriously ill. A week ago she was moved to Hampton where it was thought she might be benefited. She is a sister of Mr. Charles Akers, of the local I. O. shops, who went to Hampton yesterday to attend her bedside. The remains will be buried at Hampton.

Mr. Jacob Weil this morning received a telegram announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Philip Rothchild, of Owensboro. Mrs. Rothchild died in that city last night of a complication of diseases and general debility. She was about 70 years of age and a prominent and well known resident of Owensboro. She leaves besides a brother, Mr. Jacob Weil, here, other relatives.

Mrs. Jennie Cowser, of 820 South Third street, died last evening early from paralysis, aged 64 years. She was born in Livingston county, but had resided in Paducah for quite a while. She leaves three children, Mr. Virgil Deboe, Mrs. Lizzie McMahon, and Miss Birdie Thurman. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

The ten months old child of Mr. George Grief, of Arcadia, died from pneumonia yesterday, burial today at St. Boniface cemetery.

A WOMAN'S TONIC

No other member of the family, perhaps, bears his or her burdens so patiently as the wife and mother. The responsibility of home, the care of children, compel her to remain at her post when Nature demands that she have quiet rest and tender care. These continual physical and mental strains sap away her strength, appetite and nervous energy and leave her with organs diseased and congested. The very best remedy for her condition is found in

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup

"The Road to Good Health"

It is a vegetable compound which will strengthen the action of the liver and kidneys, remove the pressure and congestion which cause her frequent pains, tone up the nerves, enrich the blood, sharpen the appetite, and restore her to ruddy health and cheerfulness. This remedy, when combined with our Stella Vitae, never fails to cure the most obstinate cases of female disorders.

MR. J. E. WRIGHT, Upshaw, Ala., writes:

"My wife used one bottle of your Liver and Blood Syrup also one bottle of Stella Vitae in connection with it and says it is worth all it costs. She used these medicines together for pains and cramps of pregnancy, and after taking two bottles was as well as ever."

MR. H. J. SEGREST, Goldust, La., says:

"I send you this in good faith. My wife has been suffering from nervous troubles and has tried many remedies, but failed to get relief until she used your Liver and Blood Syrup. This has done her more good than everything else she has taken."

At all druggists. Dry form 25 cents. Liquid form 50 cents and $1.00. Send us two-cent stamp for sample bottle. Stella Vitae $1.00 per bottle. Write our Consultation Department for free, confidential advice.

CUBA'S BIG LOAN.

MAY BE WITHDRAWN BY NEW YORK BANK ON ACCOUNT OF WAR SCARE.

Havana, Jan. 30.—The apparent difficulty that will be experienced in floating the $35,000,000 Cuban loan at present on account of the Eastern war scare has given rise to a rumor that the National City Bank of New York, the tentative bidder for the loan, has withdrawn. President Palma said to the Associated Press this evening that he knew nothing of this withdrawal.

Senor Zehaldo, secretary of state, also said he did not believe the National City Bank had withdrawn, as otherwise the National Bank of Cuba, which was also a bidder for the loan, as the representative of an American-European syndicate, would also withdraw on account of war probabilities.

It is supposed here that the offer of the New York bank is unchanged.

REV. CARLISLE P. B. MARTIN, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.

STATE ARMY IN COLORADO HELD FOR PAY.

Pueblo, Col., Jan. 30.—The case of men of Company G, Colorado National Guard, who announced yesterday they would remain at the State armory in this city until the State remunerated them for services in Cripple Creek, looked serious for a time today when Adj. Gen. Bell sent word to Pueblo to have warrants sworn out against each man. Later, however, a telephone message was received from Gov. Peabody announcing that Paymaster Gross would be in Pueblo tomorrow noon to pay all the Pueblo men of the companies B and G, who were on duty during the strike.

CURED LUMBAGO.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1.

Panama, Jan. 30.—At the constitutional convention Dr. Amador proposed that the following article be included in the constitution of the Republic:

"Should public peace or constitutional order be disturbed in any part of the Republic of Panama the government of the United States may intervene to restore peace or order in the event that the United States by treaty or convention shall have assumed or expressed the intention of assuming the obligation of guaranteeing the independence and sovereignty of this Republic."

THE STROLLERS

By FREDERIC S. ISHAM,
Author of "Under the Rose"
Copyright, 1902, by THE BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

Carriages drove by with a rumble and a clatter, revealing a fleeting

She was now silent as a mouse.

glimpse of some beauty with full, dark eye. Venders of flowers importuned the passersby, doing a brisk business; the oyster and coffee stands reminded the spectator of a thoroughfare in London on a Saturday night, with the people congregating about the street stalls, but the brilliantly illuminated places of amusement, with their careless patrons plainly apparent to all from without, resembled rather a boulevard scene in the metropolis of France. "Probably," says a skeptical chronicler, "here and there are quiet drawing rooms and tranquil firesides, where domestic love is a chaste, presiding goddess." But the writer merely presumes such might have been the case, and it is evident from his manner of expression he offers the suggestion or afterthought charitably, with some doubts in his mind.
Certainly he never personally encountered the chaste goddess of the hearth or he would have qualified his words and made his statement more positive.
From the life of the streets the land baron turned into a well lighted entrance, passing into a large, luxuriously furnished saloon, at one end of which stood a table somewhat resembling a roulette table. Seated on one side was the plegmatic cashier and opposite him the dealer, equally impassive. Unlike faro, the popular New Orleans game, no deal box was needed, the dealer holding the cards in his hand, while a cavity in the center of the table contained a basket, where the cards, once used, were thrown. A large chandelier cast a brilliant light upon the scene.

"Messieurs, faites vos jeux," drawled the monotonous voice of the dealer, and expectation was keenly written on the faces of the double circle of players.
As the dealer began to shuffle together six packs of cards and place them in a row on the table he called out:
"Nothing more goes, gentlemen!"

The rapidity with which the cashier counted the winnings at a distance and shoved them here and there with the long rake was amazing and bewildering to the novice risking a few gold pieces for the first time on the altar of chance.

"Oh, dear!" said a light feminine voice as the rapacious rake unceremoniously drew in a poor, diminutive pile of gold. "Why did I play? Isn't it provoking?"

"You have my sympathy, Mistress Susan," breathed a voice near her.
Looking around, she had the grace to blush becomingly and approached Mau-ville with an expressive gesture, leaving Adonis and Kate at the table.

"Don't be shocked, Mr. Mauville," she began hurriedly. "We were told it was among the sights, and, having natural curiosity—"

"I understand. Armed with righteousness, why should not one go anywhere?"

"Why, indeed?" she murmured.
"But I'm afraid I'm taking you from your play?"

"I'm not going to play any more tonight."

"Tired already?"

"No; but—but I haven't a cent. That miserable table has robbed me of everything. All I have left"—piteously—
"are the clothes on my back."

"Just so!" he agreed. "But it might have been worse."

"How?" in dismay. "Didn't that stony looking man rake in my last gold piece? He didn't even look sorry, either. But what is the matter with your arm?" The land baron's expression became ominous. "You shook hands with your left hand. Oh, I see; the duel!"

"How did you hear about it?" asked Mauville irritably.

"Oh, in a roundabout way. Murder will out! And Constance—she was so solicitous about Mr. Saint-Prosper, but rather proud, I believe, because he—"
with a laugh—"came off victorious."

Susan's prattle, although accompanied by innocent glances from her blue eyes, was sometimes the most irritating thing in the world, and the land baron, goaded beyond endurance, now threw off his careless manner and swore in an underbreath by "every devil in Satan's calendar."

"Can you not reserve your soliloquy until you leave me?" observed Susan sweetly. "Otherwise—"

"I regret to have shocked your lady-ship," he murmured satirically.

"I forgive you," raising her guileless eyes. "When I think of the provocation I do not blame you so much."

"That is more than people do in your case," muttered the land baron savagely.

Susan's hand trembled. "What do you mean?" she asked, not without apprehension regarding his answer.

"Oh, that affair with the young officer, the lad who was killed in the duel, you know?"

Her composure forsook her for the moment, and she bit her lip cruelly.

"Don't," she whispered. "I am not to blame. I never dreamed it would go so far. Why should people?"

"Why?" he interposed ironically.
Susan pulled herself together. "Yes, why?" she repeated defiantly. "Can women prevent men from making fools of themselves any more than they can prevent them from amusing themselves as they will? Today it is this toy, tomorrow another. At length"—bitterly—
"—a woman comes to consider herself only a toy."

Her companion regarded her curiously.
"Well, well," he ejaculated finally.

"Losing at cards doesn't agree with your temper."

"Nor being worsted by Saint-Prosper with yours," she retorted quickly.

Mauville looked virulent, but Susan, feeling that she had retaliated in ample measure, recovered her usual equanimity of temper and placed a conciliatory hand sympathetically on his arm.

"We have both had a good deal to try us, haven't we? But how stupid men are!" she added suddenly. "As if you could not find other consolation!"

He directed toward her an inquiring glance.

"Some time ago, while I was acting in London," resumed Susan thoughtfully, "the leading lady refused to receive the attentions of a certain odious English lord. She was to make her appearance in a piece upon which her reputation was staked. Mark what happened. She was hissed—hissed from the stage. My lord led this hostile demonstration, and all his hired clauqueurs joined in. She was ruined; ruined!" concluded Susan, smiling amiably.

"You are ingenious, Mistress Susan, not to say a trifle diabolical. Your plan?"

She opened her eyes widely. "I have suggested no plan," she interrupted hurriedly.

"Well, let us sit down, and I will tell you about a French officer who— But here is a quiet corner, Mistress Susan, and if you will promise not to repeat it I will regale you with a bit of interesting gossip."

"I promise; they always do," she laughed.

Capt. Ed Farley Receives Many Flattering Requests.

It is Reported He May Allow the Use of His Name for Pension Agent.

Many friends of Captain Ed Farley of Mechanicsburg, the well known Republican and ex-Federal soldier, have for the past several days been urging him to apply for the position of pension agent for Kentucky, to succeed Gen. Dan Collier, who died suddenly at Louisville a week ago. Captain Farley has not announced what he will do, but his friends hope that he will make application, as he is one of the most influential and popular Republicans in the state.

Captain Farley has for years ably fought the battles of republicanism. He has run for a few offices, and was sometimes defeated, but any other Republican would have been defeated just as badly, probably worse. Cap-

Captain Farley is an old line Republican. He has always been for his party, and has never failed to do his utmost for it, in whatever capacity he was called on.

His record as a Union soldier is well known, and he has always stood high with everybody who knows him. Captain Farley is a popular man with everybody, even with some of his worst political enemies. It is believed that should he apply for the position of pension agent for Kentucky he would receive the support of many of the best known Republicans in the state, and would stand an excellent chance of being appointed.

Captain Farley's many friends hope he will give them a favorable answer soon, and possibly he will announce what he is to do in a few days.
